

Student Agencies Tutoring

Personalized tutoring by Cornell Students for standardized test prep, college prep, and mentorship

We're Students, Like You

As a student-run, not-for-profit organization, every dollar earned goes towards funding our mission and helping our students offset the cost of their college education.

Our Difference

As Ivy League students who have recently undertaken the college application process with great success, we bring a valuable perspective to the table.

We Understand the Challenges

1

Public resources overwhelmed

Impossible to meet individual needs

2

Limited access to mentors

Stressful to navigate the process alone

3

Overpriced options

Private services not accessible by all students

Here for each individual

We recently completed the college application process and can help you each step of the way.

“I benefited strongly from my mentor. She shared her recent experiences to really guide me through my own challenges.”

—Elana O., Bucharest, Romania

Mentors for you

We empower each student to succeed throughout the journey to college and beyond.

“I really appreciated his honesty and empathy. He took the time to understand my potential and help me reach my goals.”

—Ana B., San Pedro Sula, Honduras

Student-oriented, not profit-oriented

With average SAT and ACT scores of 1560 and 35 respectively, we bring expertise at an affordable price.

“Because of my mentor’s recent success taking the SAT, he was able to share relevant tips and materials to help me improve my scores.”

—Shawn K., Rockland County, NY
